Elizabeth McMahon is a singer, songwriter, and puppeteer and has been performing as Mrs. McPuppet throughout New York State for the past 15 years. Her recording of WALTZING WITH FIREFLIES won the 2000 Parent Choice Award. Her colorful costumes and handcrafted puppets illustrate the songs and stories she shares.

Mrs. McPuppet And Her Family and Friends In this performance, you will feel the warmth and importance of friendship. Come to the tea party and nibble on a crumpet and sing along, as the Little Red Hen tells her tale. Students will also learn the sign language for the song "Love Grows."

Mrs. McPuppet And Her Beautiful Bookcase Mrs. McPuppet arrives at your school with a colorful bookcase full of interesting books and surprises. From her bookcase, she chooses the books which emphasize the important themes of Character Education and brings them to life. Using puppets, songs and costumes, Mrs. McPuppet illustrates the ideals of trustworthiness, responsibility and caring.

Mrs. McPuppet And Her Musical Styles Dance to the merengue, see the firefly waltz and learn the round Hopscotch Toodleoo. Mrs. McPuppet opens up her suitcases full of theatrics to illustrate where these styles of music originated.

Mrs. McPuppet And Her Menagerie A variety of animals come to life through puppets and songs. Watch the metamorphosis of the caterpillar into a butterfly and laugh with the Baby Hippo as she puts on her tutu. Each year, new skits and puppets are created and added to the show. Mrs. McPuppet's menagerie will delight all and encourage a curiosity about animal life.

Mrs. McPuppet And Her Community Night It's a party and everyone is invited! Mrs. McPuppet sings and tells stories illustrated with the family of colorful puppets and costumes. The children have learned the songs and are ready to sing along. Families are invited to join
